A Message from Your Chapter President

WIPA Greater Cincinnati,

The cooler temps in Cincinnati signal the end of Q3 and the start of Q4. I know for many of us in the wedding industry, Q3 was a whirlwind that we were hoping to just get through in one piece. Congratulations, we made it!

I recently had a wedding where we contracted over 20 vendors. Three of those vendors were contracted because of the relationship that has formed and grown over the past year within our WIPA Cincinnati chapter. It didn't hit me until after the wedding the impact WIPA relationships have had on this one single wedding in just the short (almost) year our chapter has been formed.

As we look ahead at our last event of the year, at The Palomar, I encourage you to get comfortable with being uncomfortable and introduce yourself to someone new. Maybe a fellow vendor that you've looked up to for years, someone you have always wanted to work with or an individual you connect to on a personal level. Forming relationships can be magical when you take the first step. You never know where that first conversation can take you to!

I look forward to connecting with our members on November 7th at The Palomar prior to the event with our first ever "Bubbles with the Board."

Cheers to WIPA GC!
