A Message from Your Utah Chapter President

Welcome

Dear Members of WIPA Utah,

I hope you all have enjoyed our summer season of weddings! I'm grateful we live in a state that attracts couples from all over the country to our beautiful mountains and venues. When I ask prospective clients why they chose Utah as their wedding location their answers remind me how lucky I am to live in this beautiful state and wonderful wedding community. It has been my distinct honor to serve as your President, and with just a few months left in my term, I wanted to take a moment to reflect on our journey.

Our chapter has grown remarkably, now boasting 153 dedicated members. Moreover, we are part of a global community with 20 International Chapters, which means we share connections with hundreds of other wedding professionals across the globe.

Last month's event celebrating Cultural Weddings around the world at The Azalea was extraordinary. From the mouthwatering array of dishes representing ten different countries to the insightful discussions led by our expert wedding planners and the impressive design competition, it was a testament to our chapter's creativity and camaraderie.

But our journey is far from over. We have some incredible events lined up to close out the year. On October 17th, we invite you to join us at Blue Sky for an event hosted by Utah Bride & Groom magazine, where we'll delve into the secrets of how to get published. And mark your calendars for our annual Gala on November 2nd at Siempre – this event is always a highlight of the year for me.

I look forward to seeing you at these upcoming events, as we continue to learn, grow, and support one another in our shared passion for the wedding industry

Mission

Our mission is to provide industry leading education for our members, produce inspirational networking events and advance the ethical standards of the wedding industry. Our founding board worked with a diverse group of WIPA members to develop the professional conduct and code of ethics to achieve the highest standards of excellence.

Code of Ethics

- Be a credit to the industry by implementing good business principles which will protect the public against fraud and unfair practices.
- Provide written contracts to clients to establish an understanding of all charges, services, products and performance expectations.
- Respect all people regardless of race, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, gender, or age.
- Safeguard all privileged information about clients in a confidential manner.
- Maintain adequate and appropriate insurance coverage for all business activities to assure the company's ability to continue to do business and honor contracts.
- Abide by all government regulations and laws so as to favorably represent WIPA.
- Strive for excellence in their field by continually improving their knowledge base and be willing to share that proficiency with other WIPA Members.
- Give credit where credit is due; and will not plagiarize another's work.
- Recognize individual boundaries of competence and be forthcoming and truthful about professional experience and qualifications.
- Exercise the utmost integrity, put the client's interest first and foremost.
- Not accept gratuities, gifts or favors which will impair or appear to influence professional decisions or actions.
- Show consideration for other professionals by extending the utmost level of kindness, regard and cooperation.
- Treat employees with esteem and fairness, advocating conditions of employment that will safeguard their rights and welfare.
- Adopt the Standards of Performance of the association which will result in consistently meeting expectations of clients, collaborators and referral sources.

When in doubt, following these guidelines will empower WIPA Members to make effective decisions with greater confidence. If you have any feedback or questions about our code of ethics, please contact us at infoewipa.org
